Reynolds’ Roadrunners Weekly Newsletter

Announcements
*Thank you for the wonderful snack donations. We are ready for more.
*The second quarter book report is due Friday. This is an oral report, but they are welcome to use note cards for important dates. I have these available in the classroom. Be sure to practice this week!
*We will be holding a Biography Fair on Tuesday, December 20, at 2:00.
*Please send in food for the food drive. As of Friday we have 4 lonely cans.

This Week in the Classroom
Language Arts: We will complete reading Sarah Plain and Tall. We will then jump back into our reading book.
Math: We will complete chapter 5, Factors, Multiples, and Patterns. The test is Thursday.
Social Studies: We will begin our next chapter in the early Californians unit, and continue to work on daily geography.
Science: We’ll complete our unit on fast changes on Earth.

Homework
Monday: Spelling. Write each word three times each and write ten sentences using at least ten words.
Tuesday: Math practice page.
Wednesday: Study for tomorrow’s math test. Study for tomorrow’s spelling test.
Thursday: Reading comprehension worksheet. Study for tomorrow’s math and language tests.

Academic Vocabulary event, occur occurrence

Super Star
Tilak Leva
This fantastic fourth grader is known for his awesome video games skills. Tilak also enjoys reading and eating pancakes. His favorite TV show is Jeopardy, and his favorite movie is Star Wars: The Force Awakens. Tilak says that people like him because, “I’m smart, I’m friendly, and I’m cool.”